Important Notes

Please take time to complete your application form in full; if you require extra space then an additional sheet can be included. We do not expect people to have done everything!

Please ensure you have attached a good quality colour photograph [signed on the back] to the front of your form.

You must pass on your reference forms to your selected referee's and ensure they complete them and send them back to the Chief Leader by the date given – it is your responsibility to ensure they arrive on time.

All application forms must be returned by Saturday 29th November 2003 at the latest.

The date for the first training day is Saturday 13th December. If selected, it is important that you keep this date free.

Please send your form back to:
